RADIO — locate, tune, amplify

A xister project | conceived by Marco Klefisch

RADIO is an exhibition area in which audio and video publications are selected and exhibited.

The products on exhibition are chosen from works created by 'guest owners' selected amongst artisans, curators, designers and photographers who have used RADIOs premises as a workshop for a two month period during which they have done research on a specific theme pertaining to their artistic field.

Again every two months, RADIO hosts a show of material collected and developed by two travelers singled out to be sent as envoys to specific locations to put together a focus project.

RADIO promotes music, travelling and cultural events on a continual basis via interchange between selected individuals.

RADIO is in Milan in Via Pestalozzi 4
